was abolished owing to the absence of the Bacanarddan for several years. In his letter no 384 dy 2d March 1908, the Dy Commr recommended the revival of yejurveda Parayana post in the Temple on a pay of 8annas per mensem. Enquiry was thereupon made as to how many Vedaparayana men there were then in the Temple and what service they performed and how the saving of 8annas said to be available was caused — The Dy Commr has submitted his further report together with a list showing the Vedaparayana men in the Temple. The Sub Divl officer's yadi refd to in the Dy Commrs letter under reply and other vouchers have not been received.

General and Revl. Depts,

Sir,

With reference to your docket-no: 4406 of the 14th April 1908 calling for information as to show many Vedaparayana there are in the Sri yoga Narasimha Swami temple at Melkote, and what service they perform and how the

Savings of 0-8-0 and to be available for the gajuvedan parayanamam is caused etc, I have the honor to state that from the Correspondence ending with French Rocks Sub Division officer's yadi on the subject it is seen that no savings is caused but that the gajuvedan parayanamam might be paid 0-8-0 per mensem from the savings that might be effected out of the amounts allotted for annual repairs etc and that in any case the particular parayanam

must be revived

The post seems to have been abolished at the time of revision in 1879 as neither the Karanadar nor his gumasta of the said post was alive.

I am of opinion that in Consideration of the insignificant amount of pay the post carries and the importance of it, the Government may be pleased to revive the Yajurveda Parayana

The list showing the several Vedaparayanas men 10 in number the amount of pay they each get and

work they do is herein enclosed for reference.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

K Mundy
